Part I
introduction

this data concept is all fetching information about the type of people most people wear (men and women) relationship between their choice of hair against their skin color

Part II
purpose

this data collection will help hair training school easen their work and find out which hair types to focus most on when teaching students -find out how long people ofen plait hair -which regions in the country have the most and least "hair plait" oriented people

Part III
example

name	hair type	region	skin color
namayanja angel	brains	kampala	black

1   image